Principals Message

The month of November begins on Sunday and here at St. John's that means two very important things occur before our Thanksgiving break- the school Musical and Parent-Teacher Conferences.

The Musical this year is Alice in Wonderland, Jr. Over 60 SJL students are involved in this production. I love seeing the students practicing after school and I can't wait to see the final production. Mark your calendar and please plan on seeing the show, which will run November 18 - 22. More information can be found on pg. 3.

Teachers have sent out, or will be shortly sending out, individual links to sign up for Parent-Teacher Conferences. I pray this is a valuable time for parents, teachers, and students to meet and help better understand how our students can continue to grow and succeed.

We will be having our special Veteran's Day Chapel service on Wednesday, November 11. Thank you for all of the sock donations that have already come in. The class that brings in the most pairs of socks will receive a pizza party.

Memory Verse for November 2-6

John 15:12-13
My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends.

Next week's memory verse is about love, and the call to love each other. Jesus presents this as a command for His disciples to follow. But he also offers Himself as the model for the kind of love He is talking about.

The word love gets used in lots of different ways. We use it to refer to our favorite food or sports team, and we when speaking of romance. So it is very helpful that Jesus offers a clear picture of what He means when He says to love each other. He points to His love for His friends, a love that will lead Him to the cross. He laid down His life on the cross not just for the disciples He's talking to in this passage, but for all, including you and me. We then can respond to such love by loving one another in the same way

Jesus Himself is the model. Obviously, if the standard is to give our lives for each other, then it certainly includes kindness and helpfulness. We show love for each other in sacrificing for others, and in considering their needs and desires before our own.

For discussion:

- When do you find it hard to love like Jesus?
- How can we keep the example of Jesus' love in mind when dealing with other?
