Principals Message

Dear Parent,

Congratulations to Mrs. Lloyd and her family on the blessed arrival of their sweet baby girl—may God surround her with His boundless love, grace, and joy all the days of her life!

Congratulations to all who are involved in our school musical, Alice in Wonderland! The performances have begun and will continue through Sunday.

This week is our Parent Teacher Conferences. I pray this is a valuable time for parents, teachers, and students to meet and help better understand how our kids can continue to succeed. Please be on time for your conference appointment. Report Cards are available to view on Gradelink for Grades 3-8.

Keep our teachers in your prayers as they spend three days next week at a Lutheran Educator Conference in San Diego.

I want to wish all of you a very Happy and Blessed Thanksgiving! The Lord has blessed all of us richly, and more specifically, He has blessed our school with a wonderful community of students, teachers, and families! Have a safe and restful Thanksgiving Break next week as we thank God for His many gracious blessings to us!

Memory Verse for November 16-20

James 1:17

Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows.

Next week's memory verse is an appropriate one for the week before Thanksgiving.

In this passage, James points out that God the father is the giver of all the good gifts that we receive in life. This is true, of course, for the spiritual blessings of forgiveness, love and peace because of the death and resurrection of Jesus. But it is also true of all the things that make up our lives. Life itself is a gift from God the Father. Other gifts include our family and friends, our possessions and home, the ability to work and to learn.

Thanksgiving is a day set aside especially for giving thanks to the giver of all good gifts. Being thankful is not just having a sense of appreciation for what you have. More appropriately, it means offering our thanks and gratitude to those who have blessed us. In this case, it is about thanking God who has blessed us with "every good and perfect gift."

Thanksgiving Worship Service

St. John's Lutheran Church will have a special Thanksgiving service on Wednesday, November 25 at 7:00 pm in the sanctuary. We encourage all who come to worship to bring a non-perishable food item for the Napa Food Bank. All are invited!
