News from the Principal's desk

Dear Parents,

Final preparations are underway for tomorrow night's APT Main Event! I look forward to seeing you there. Thank you to all who are participating in the first round of the Silent Auction. I know it can be a real nail-biter at the end!

This coming week, we will have some special guests on campus as part of our school accreditation process. Two groups of four educators each will be visiting and observing our school in action. One group will focus on our preschool program and the other will focus on our elementary program. This is all part of our regular six-year cycle of accreditation through the Western Association of Schools and Colleges and National Lutheran School Accreditation. The goal of accreditation is to continually look for ways to improve and grow as a school as we serve all of our families! Please feel free to greet these individuals when you see them on campus.

Tuesday, March 25 is a Dine and Donate at Hop Creek for our 8th graders.

Reminder that we will not have school tomorrow, March 21. Our teachers will be attending an in-service in Livermore, CA.

Blessings to you and your family!

Memory Verse for March 24-28

Matthew 28:19-20 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.

Next week's verse is sometimes referred to as "The Great Commission." Jesus is "commissioning" his disciples – then and now – to make more disciples. How are His followers to do that?

- Baptizing them. We baptize in the name of the Triune God – Father, Son and Holy Spirit – and God is at work pouring out His grace.
- Teaching them. We teach God's Word that people may know it, follow it, and live it.

But Jesus doesn't leave His disciples on their own to carry out this task. He promises them – and us – that He is with His disciples as they carry out this important work.

Discussion Questions

- Is there someone in your life that you think Jesus wants you to reach out to with the good news of God's love?
- Jesus promises to always be with us. How does that encourage you when sharing your faith with others?
